

The background of the entire image is a festive New Year's Eve scene. It features two champagne flutes filled with sparkling wine, with bubbles rising to the surface. The glasses are set on a surface covered with fine, shimmering gold glitter. Scattered around the glasses are several pieces of gold and black striped streamers, some of which are curled and floating in the air. The background is a warm, golden-yellow color with soft, out-of-focus bokeh lights and sparkling starburst effects, creating a celebratory and elegant atmosphere.
